Venerable Dr. Jas. H. Carlisle Dies at Home in Spartanburg.

The Corporation Court in Petersburg Had a Busy Session Yesterday.

RELATIVES NOT LOCATED

Authorities Learn Nothing of Family of Inge Who Killed Himself.

PETERSBURG, VA., October 21.—The regular term of the Corporation Court, Judge J. M. Mullin presiding, convened today. The grand jury brought in the following indictments for felony: Horace Harrison, John Henry Mason, Winston Brown, Charles Cole, Waverly Carter, Albert Hunter, John Johnson, two indictments, and Minnie Green—all parties are colored. Winston Brown, alias Hobo, pleaded guilty to the charge of house-breaking, and was sentenced to four years on the public roads. Horace Harrison pleaded guilty to the charge of forging a check for $5, and was given two years on the public roads. Charles Cole was given three years on the public roads, for breaking into the dwelling of William Robinson.

The second trial of Dr. J. F. Murphy, on the charge of stealing a horse from O. W. Matton, resulted in a hung jury, and Dr. Murphy will be tried again at this term of the court. To-day's trial was Murphy's second one, the first trial resulting also in a hung jury.

John Johnson, the negro pickpocket arrested on the circus grounds on Tuesday, October 19, was tried by a jury and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. There is another charge against Johnson, which will be tried later.

The civil docket will be called tomorrow at 10:30.

The Williams Case. Owing to the fact that there is no Secretary of the Commonwealth, the request of Commonwealth's Attorney Mann for a requisition on the Governor of Wyoming for Junius A. Williamson cannot be issued until after Governor Swanson appoints a successor to Mr. Eggleston. Chief Ragland expects the requisition will be given him Saturday morning, and if possible he will leave on Saturday night, accompanied by one of his officers, for Wyoming.

General News. A large number of Pennsylvania veterans, who came to Richmond to unveil a monument erected near that city, are in Petersburg visiting the battlefields nearby.

There were two alarms of fire yesterday evening, but the damage done was very slight.

The funeral of the late Judge Drury A. Uewton took place from his residence, on Bollingbrook Street, at 1 o'clock today.

Chief of Police Ragland received a telegram from Chief Morris, of Danville, announcing the suicide by drowning Wednesday of A. D. Inge, formerly of Petersburg, and requesting him to notify his children and relatives.

Inge has not lived in Petersburg for several years, and his children and relatives have not as yet been located.

The body was recovered at noon today, after the water had been drawn out of the canal, which furnishes water for the canal, the Dan River. On the bank were found the outer clothing and hat of the man and a note stating that he would drown himself; that he had been living under the name of A. D. Thompson, and working in the cotton mills, but that his real name was Inge.

He gave as the motives for the suicide that he was in ill health and had no money and no friends.

John C. Pegram, of United States Cavalry, Fort Riley, Kansas, is at home on a furlough.

Ensign Richard Bernard, of the ship Eagle, which has been detailed for survey duty at Colon, spent yesterday with relatives in the city.

Dr. J. A. Burke have returned from Raleigh, N. C., where they have been in attendance upon the annual meeting of the Seaboard Air Line Railway surgeons.

James T. Rahilly, a prominent young lawyer, left yesterday for Pittsburgh, where he will reside in the future.

TEN HOUSES DESTROYED. Negro Settlement Near Newbern, N. C., Threatened for a Time.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—NEWBERN, N. C., October 21.—Fire broke out in James City, a negro town across the river from Newbern, about 2 o'clock this afternoon, starting in a pressing club. Ten houses were burned before it was finally checked. The Newbern fire engine and hose wagon were sent over to help, but arrived too late.

The damage amounts to $2,500 or $3,000. There was a stiff wind blowing at the time of the fire, and for a time it looked as if half of James City was doomed. The burned houses were owned by negroes and the loss is heavy on them.

Rhodens-Grishaw. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—DANVILLE, Va., October 21.—Mrs. Lela Grishaw and Joel H. Rhodens, of this city, were married at the home of the bride on Grand Street, in the presence of a few friends, to-night at 8 o'clock. The house was attractively decorated in chrysanthemums and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Holland, pastor of Keen Street Baptist Church, the ring ceremony being used. The bride was given in a handsome plum colored suit and carried a beautiful bunch of bride's roses. The couple will reside in this city.

CORNER-STONE IS LAID

Catholic Church at Wilmington, N. C., now in course of construction.

LAY CORNER-STONE OF NEW BUILDING

Impressive Ceremony at St. Thomas Catholic Church, at Wilmington.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—WILMINGTON, N. C., October 21.—This afternoon the corner-stone of the costly and handsome new St. Thomas Catholic Church, which is nearing completion, was laid, and the event was attended with an impressive, beautiful ceremony.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large assemblage and was participated in by many priests, who came to Wilmington, not only from the two Carolinas, but from as far North as New Jersey. At the visiting priests celebrated high mass this morning at 10 o'clock in the old St. Thomas Catholic Church, at which, at one time, Cardinal Gibbons, then Father Gibbons, was rector. This afternoon they assembled at the convent, near the scene of the building of the new edifice. After having formed a procession around the building they marched inside, while the Litany of the Saints was being chanted in Latin. Bishop Leo Haid, of Belmont, and head of the Catholic Church in North Carolina, blessed the corner-stone, and it was then placed in the niche prepared for it in the tower of the church. Then followed a brief sermon by the bishop.

In the corner-stone a number of articles were placed, including some soil from Cork, coming from the birthplace of Bishop England, and a piece of tile from the Vatican.

The visiting Catholic clergy who participated in the corner-stone laying were Bishop Haid, of Belmont, who presided. Rt. Rev. Father Felix, also of Belmont, who was master of ceremonies, and Rev. Fathers Joseph, of Charlotte; Marion, of Asheville; Gregory, of Salisbury; Irwin, of New Church; Grove, of Nazareth; Whearty, of Rocky Mount; Vincent, of Greensboro; Hannon, of Southern Pines; O'Brien, of Durham; Budd, rector of the Cathedral, Charleston, S. C.; Langan, of Acosta, S. C.; Petrie, of Atlantic City, N. J.; and Leahy, of Princeton, N. J.

The new edifice will be one of the handsomest in the South and will stand as a monument to the untiring and masterly work done by Father Dennis, rector of the church. The new structure is cruciform in shape and is in the Spanish renaissance style. It will be magnificently appointed. The date for the dedication has not as yet been fixed.

Youth Kills Himself. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—GRAND RAPIDS, Va., October 21.—A young man, brother of a merchant of this place, shot himself through the heart this morning, death being instantaneous. Sparks, who was only sixteen years of age, had been despondent for some time, but his relatives never thought of suicide.

JURY IS DIVIDED.

Another Hung Jury Probable in the Case of Angelo Hamilton. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—LYNCHBURG, VA., October 21.—The jury in the second trial of Angelo Hamilton for the murder of Mrs. Sallie Hix here last June, having heard the evidence to-day, to-night is hopelessly divided and cannot agree. At 8:30 o'clock Judge Christian sent the jury back to its room and adjourned his purpose to keep it looked up all night.

The jury in the first trial, on October 7, divided, eleven being for election and one for second degree murder. The failure of jurors in two other cases here this year, to indict capital punishment gives rise to the belief that there is a very strong sentiment in Lynchburg against capital punishment, notwithstanding the fact that there have been six murders here this year.

Veterans in Session. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—RALEIGH, N. C., October 21.—The North Carolina Confederate Veterans' Association to-night re-elected W. A. Graham chairman and Captain S. A. Ashe secretary, and adopted a resolution, introduced by Colonel J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State, urging the next Legislature to pass an act requiring each county to provide a record book, in which shall be entered data as to each Confederate veteran in the county, showing his war and family record, the clerk of the court to do the work.

Seacoast Securities Case. ASHEVILLE, N. C., October 21.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day in the case of the Seacoast Securities Company, through its receivers, against the Southern Life Insurance Company, Julian S. Carr, J. C. Patterson and J. W. Hughes, responding to the rule issued against them to show cause why they should not be enjoined from practicing an unfair and fraudulent scheme, made answer that they did not know of the previous injunction issued by the court, and applied for leave to intervene and file an answer and crossbill. This leave was granted, but the court, and the temporary order forbidding prosecution of the Superior Court case was continued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—JACKSONVILLE, FLA., October 21.—For the first time in the history of the American Railway Bridge and Builders Association, a Southern man has been chosen to head the organization. This honor has been conferred upon J. S. Leonard, of Charlotte, N. C., who succeeds J. P. Canty, of Pittsburg, Mass., as president.

Quinn's place, "Kempner," near Boyce, was totally destroyed yesterday morning, about three o'clock, by a fire, which the only animal, burned was on foot. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FINAL SESSION OF TEXTILE MEN

Interesting Discussion on Various Phases of the Question Before Them.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—RALEIGH, N. C., October 21.—The final session of the Southern Textile Association for the Raleigh quarterly meeting was a comingling of "shop talk" and pleasure. It being a "smoker," held in the rooms of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce. Later, seated in the assembly room, the mill men exchanged views. There was a most interesting talk by Professor William Nelson on weaving, that was illustrated with samples of goods, ranging from the coarse staples to the finest cotton fabrics, one sample shown being valued at $10 per square foot.

Following this talk there was a discussion of points brought out by F. M. Olson, of Greenville, and others. Then the talk drifted to problems of carding. T. B. Wallace, of Laurens, S. C., and R. D. Thomas, of Laurens, S. C., especially in the South, as compared with the English mills, and then in favor of the New England mills, as compared with those of the South. He lamented the lack of cordial and "mutual interest" relations in American mills, especially in the South, as compared with the English mills. His was a most interesting talk and was well received.

The association adjourned to meet next in Columbia in February.

WASHINGTON AND LEE SQUAD IN ROANOKE

Lexington Collegians Ready for Gridiron Struggle With Davidson To-Day--Virginia Team in Good Condition After Many Accidents

LEXINGTON, VA., October 21.—The Washington and Lee football team, carrying twenty men, under the charge of Coach Pfeiffer and Shaughnessy, left for Roanoke this morning, where they will meet Davidson College to-morrow. The team will be put through light practice this afternoon at the Roanoke Fair Grounds preparatory to the first real struggle of the season. The team is reported to have a strong aggregation, and the White and Blue men are on their mettle. The real strength of Washington and Lee's team has not been shown thus far, since it has not lined up against any teams of its class.

The coaches have whipped the men into good shape, however, and Captain Izard stated this morning that he expected to win, though he knew the game would be a hard fought one, since Davidson has had more than two weeks' longer practice than his team, and has also faced two strong eleven-weights—Virginia and Georgia. The former game went to the Orange and Blue team by a score of 13 to 0, but it has been stated that the Presbyterians outplayed Virginia. The game with Georgia resulted in neither team scoring.

Washington and Lee has not been able to use the same back field in a single game this season. Both Captain Izard and Wilson were out of last Saturday's game, but they will line up against Davidson. Simms, however, who was counted on to put up a strong game at end, is still out with a bad shoulder. Barnard will not be able to accompany the team, as he is laid up with a bad knee. Brown is hardly in condition to play, but will accompany the team.

Long's Split

Wood, ready for kindling and starting the fire off quick or cooking a quick meal, is selling very fast now, because house-keepers are not only using it to start off latrines, furnaces, coal fires, etc., but many have found out that Long's Woodman's Ready Prepared Wood, in either Oak or Pine, is convenient and ready to hasten the house work. Thus, too, they can keep a better servant by giving them good heating, well-prepared fuel. His coal is unsurpassed, because he is selling the Pink Ash, Free Burning, Free-from-slate Anthracite, Fire Creek Lump and the best Lump Split for grates ever sold. A trial of it will convince. His Oak and Pine, in large blocks, for grates or wood heaters, is fine. His Hickory is old and dry—perfectly dry—sawed 15 to 48 inches long, is beautiful burning. His Oak and Pine Slab is the cheapest and best fuel on earth—in fact, he is prepared to please all. A trial will please the cook.
